About the Kraft Nabisco Championship

Celebrating its 40th staging in 2011, the event has been a part of the LPGA Tour since 1972, and was designated a major in 1983. Three-time champion Amy Alcott began a winner's tradition of jumping into the lake at the 18th hole after her victory in 1991. The event was called the Colgate Dinah Shore from 1972-81 and the Nabisco Dinah Shore from 1982-99. Dinah Shore's legacy is preserved with the "Dinah Shore Walk of Champions" at the 18th hole at Mission Hills Country Club. In addition, a statue of Dinah Shore, serving as the walk's focal point, was created by noted sculptor George Montgomery, who was Shore's former husband. The tournament' trophy is called the Dinah Shore Trophy. For the latest information about the event, log on to www.kncgolf.com.
